DID YOU KNOW?

Where does the name Jesolo come from?

Jesolo was already inhabited in Roman times and had the name of Equilium. The name varied from Equilio, Exulo, Iesolo, Giesolo and Jexollo, until the mid-16th century when it took the name of Cavazuccherina, due to the excavation of the old Zuccherina Quarry. The village became a municipality on 22nd December 1807 when Napoleon I, King of Italy, established it. On the 18th August 1930 the village took the name of Jesolo, thanks to a decree by King Victor Emanuel. In 1984, Jesolo became a "City", with a decree by Sandro Pertini, the then President of the Republic. There are two places where you can get a real feel for Jesolo's roots: at the Kursaal Center, with the mosaic exhibition, and in the archaeological site in Jesolo Paese.

JESOLAN FLAVORS

Tiramisù

Dish made in the aftermath of the Second World War whose name (pick me up) refers to the calorie content.

600 g mascarpone - 300 g sugar - 6 egg yolks - ladyfingers - cold unsweetened coffee - unsweetened cocoa (to taste)

Beat the egg yolks well. Mix the mascarpone and sugar and add the mixture to the egg yolks to obtain a thick, smooth mixture. Soak the ladyfingers in the coffee and arrange them in a dish (oven dish/glass) and cover them with the cream. Continue arranging alternating layers until the cream is finished. On the last layer, which should be the cream, dust with cocoa and refrigerate for a couple of hours.
