DID YOU KNOW?

Curiosities about gondola, the typical boat of Venice

The gondola is composed of 280 different pieces and is 11 meters long. It has an asymmetric shape with the left side wider than the right one to be kept it aligned and led by one to four rowers rowing in the Venetian way. That is standing and facing the boat's bow to maneuver the long oar standing on a special support called fórcola. The typical iron in the bow is called "dolfin" instead and useful to weigh down the front part of the boat keeping it on course. Its shape has a precise meaning, it contains the history of the City of Venice and the lagoon.

JESOLAN FLAVORS

Squid with black ink

Ingredients for 6 people: 1.3 kg squid; 1 small onion garlic; olive oil; polenta; parsley.

Method: Use 1.3 kg of squid, cleaned and with the insides removed. Put the sac containing the black ink located inside the squid to one side. Cut into 1cm long strips. Fry a small onion and two chopped garlic cloves in a cup of oil. Then add the squid and pour in a cup of dry white wine. Leave to evaporate. Combine the black ink of 4 or 5 sacs, adding a few spoonfuls of warm water. Continue cooking for around 40 minutes. Turn from time to time. When they are ready, season with salt and pepper. Serve with hot, soft polenta and a sprinkling of parsley.

JESOLO AND AROUND

A visit to the islands of Venice

The departure is from Treporti which can easily be reached by car or by ATVO bus. Then, don't forget that from Jesolo special trips are also organized by travel agency and private companies. Absolutely not to be missed are the islands of Murano, Burano and Torcello. In Murano you can visit typical glassworks, during which you can watch a glass making demonstration by the skilled glass blowers. Burano, on the other hand, is famous for its lace. You can admire the display of splendid lace items, including some dating back to the 16th century. And how could you fail to end the trip around the islands of the lagoon with a visit to what represents a symbol of Venice's past splendour, an island that had about 30.000 inhabitants and where many churches and palaces stood, Torcello.
